

EQUITY COMMITTEE BOOK REVIEW

Nova Scotia Teachers Union

The Equity Committee is pleased to provide information regarding resources educators can use to assist them when they are dealing with equity issues. At last April's NSTU Equity Conference one of the booths set up on Saturday morning was hosted by Outside the Lines, a book store located in Halifax. Its slogan reads "Books for Critical Minds". It offers quite a diverse selection of books and some of the selection categories are definitely related to topics of equity. They include books dealing with cultural studies, gender studies, and race relations. For more information visit outsidethelinesbooks.com
